

Capital letters

How do capital letters help with comprehension of a text?

Look back through the last chapter you read in your book.

- Find all the words that use capital letters.
- Think about any similarities you see between the words.
- Create some rules of when words should have capital letters.

Compare your rules with a friend.

- Then research the rules online.
- See how close your rules are!

ASKING ALL AGENTS!

Why might it be helpful to notice capitals when you are reading?

How might it be confusing if these words were all lowercase?

Reflect.

I used to think ...

But now I think ...
