

Prepositions

Where is it?

Read this sentence

The cat is in the box.

- Which word in the sentence describes where the cat is?

Think about the role of prepositions

- The word 'in' describes where the cat is.
- Other prepositions are 'on' and 'under'.
- How would you draw the cat and the box using the words 'on' and 'under'?

The cat is in the box.

Think about other prepositions

- In a group, write a list of other words that are prepositions.

THINK

PAIR

SHARE

Read a page of your book.

- See if you can find any prepositions in the text.
- Write down what you find.

ASKING ALL AGENTS!

Why are prepositions important?

The umbrella is over the person.

The person is between the posts.

Their feet are in their boots.

The dock is under the person.

The snow is on the dock.

PYP AGENTS

Reflect.

I used to think ...

But now I think ...