

Silent letters

How does understanding silent letters help with comprehension of a text?

Say the word 'climb'.

- How does the word 'climb' sound different to how it is written?
- Can you think of any other words that have silent letters?

Look through your book to find words with silent letters.

- Write the words down.
- Then underline the part that is silent.

ASKING ALL AGENTS!

What problems might there be if we removed all silent letters?

Reflect.

I used to think ...

But now I think ...
